Brief about the activity/event	The Speaker explained the importance of creativity, mind mapping and creative journaling. She discussed the way and process of mind mapping and how to creatively represent it through journaling. Also, she showed the process video to explain how to incorporate the different spreads in the journal and represent ideas more creatively. The speaker also encouraged the students to do creative journaling and its impact on creative thinking on a long-term basis. The speaker also discussed how to overcome the non-creative days, continue the creative journey, and become more productive while doing your work.
Remarks	It was a very creative presentation where attendees got the basic idea of mind mapping and representing it through creative journaling through personalised art.
