Brief about the activity/event	Students were taken for a site visit to Artist village in Belapur. The students interacted with Landscape Architect Mrs. Smita Gupta who is a resident of Artist Village. She briefed the students about the ecological and cultural importance of Parsik hill and surrounding areas. Her expertise about the area was helpful for the students to gain valuable insights for their semester V landscape design project.
Remarks	The students gained a deeper understanding of how architectural design can complement and enhance the natural landscape.
