Brief about the activity/event	Mahatma Education Society's Pillai Group of Institutions observed Community Service Day by inviting over 800 residents from various orphanages, destitute homes, old age homes and shelters for tribal and street children to their sprawling Panvel Campus where they were treated to a memorable day of food, fun and learning. The staff and students of the Pillai group including Pillai HOC College of Architecture curated many fun activities, competitions and games for the students of Vanvasi Kalyan Ashram School. It was heartening to see the guests enthusiastically participate in all of them. Mahatma Education Society continues to associate with these organizations and nurture them at an institutional level year after year to improve their quality of life.
Remarks	This unique and innovative community service program provides staff and students an opportunity to serve the underprivileged in society and sensitize them to the various problems faced by them.
